Our Next Meeting Date

April 6, 1975

Sunday Afternoon - - 3:37 P.M.

Parker Auditorium - Greenville County Library

Mr. Marion M. Hewell will be our guest speaker at the April meeting. He will speak about the settling of the Fairview Area of the County and trace some of the early families who settled in that area. Since this is one of the earlier settled areas of Greenville County, those of you who are natives of Greenville County may well have had ancesters in that area. This should be one of our outstanding programs of this year.

Immediately after the regular meeting on Sunday afternoon, there will be a meeting of the Executive Board. Members of this board, please take note. We will discuss plans for the meeting of the State Genealogical Society in November.

Again at that meeting we will discuss meeting time. Members who have a preference please express your preference.

May will be a working meeting. Dr. Sneary has promised to bring us up to date on his publications, etc.

Mrs. Mary Walker Morris and others from our Chapter recently attended a meeting in Raleigh, N. C. of the North Carolina Archivists. Reports are that this was a good meeting as well as an informative one.

Again, our thanks to Mrs. Morris and the Library for making available at the last meeting a list of materials available in the South Carolina Room of the Library. If you did not get one of these, they are available at the Library.

Thanks to Mirs Mary Seyle for bringing us information at the last meeting on records available at the Greenville County Courthouse and where they are located and to Mrs. Ansel Hawkins and her guest for information regarding membership in various genealogical organizations.

Dr. Sneary is teaching a class in genealogy on Tuesday Nights in Clemson.

The Greenville Chapter is fortunate to have Dr. Sneary to teach these classes and continue to stimulate interest in genealogy.
