Our Next Meeting Date

November 3, 1975

Monday Evening - Seven O'Clock

Conference Room - Greenville County Library

PLEASE note the date and time of our next meeting. We hope that you will plan to be present. This will be a business meeting with a great amount of business to complete. Officers for next year will be elected. Plans will be made for our big Christmas party in December. Last, but not least, we will review plans for the State Meeting here in November.

And speaking of the State Meeting in November, circle NOVEMBER 22, 1975 in red on your calendar. That is the day we are the host chapter. You have received from State Officers an outline of the program. Registrations are coming in from Chapters throughout the State. Naturally, we will expect all members of the Greenville Chapter to attend. Would you believe that the first registration that I received from the Greenville Chapter was from one of our members who lives in Johnson City, Tennessee! We are so happy that Miss Divine is planning to be with us. Make a special effort to meet her since she is not able to attend our regular meetings.

More details about the MEETING will be presented at our meeting on November 3. My sincere thanks now to those who are serving on committees and working on the plans to make November 22 a BIG day.

We always welcome our copy of THE SUMMER BLACK RIVER WATCHMAN, the newsletter from the Sumter Chapter. Note the recent copy on display at the November 3 meeting. This is certainly A CHAPTER AT WORK!

From the Sumter Newsletter we learn that:

Mrs. Ethel S. Nerveux has published George Alfred Trenholm and The Company That Went to War, 1861-1865

Caroline Moore of Charleston has published her fourth Abstract of Wills

Mary Ritter Reid has published 1850 Census of Williamsburg County

We recently received a request from Mrs. Gordon Lightfoot of Victoria, Texas for a list of publications of members of the South Carolina Genealogical Society. As far as we know, there is no such list. Such a list with addresses for ordering, etc. would be of great value to not only out-of-state genealogists, but wouldn't we all like to have such a copy. State Officers, would such a list be a possible project?

THE SOUTH CAROLINA MAGAZINE OF ANCESTRAL RESEARCH, Volume III, No. 2 recently came out. This publication is on display tonight and copies may be found in the Library. "Marriage and Obituary Notices from the Greenville Mountaineer (continued)" by our own Mary Seyle is one of the feature articles.

We were delighted to have a visitor from New Jersey at our September meeting who just happened to stop by the Library to check on some Greenville County connections. It was a lucky night for her as one of our members was able to direct her to some good leads.

Miss Milburn Divine, of Johnson City, Tennessee is a descendant of Thomas Lee Divine an American Revolutionary War soldier who had a land grant in 1791 for land in Greenville District on the waters of the Tyger River at Beaver Dam. Later, he moved to Tennessee. Miss Divine will be at the November 22 State Meeting.
