JUNE MEETING

Thursday, June 5, 1997
7:00 p.m.

John F. Parker Auditorium
Greenville County Library

Speaker: James J. Baldwin
"A Biography of the Struck Eagle—Brig. Gen. Micah Jenkins"

Mr. Baldwin researches and writes books and articles on people and events of the era of the War Between the States. He authored the History of the Fifth South Carolina Volunteers CSA and the Palmetto Volunteers. You SC and CSA history buffs will not want to miss this meeting.

MAY MEETING-- Around 20 members gathered around a large conference table to plat a piece of land from the description of the metes and bounds of the piece as set forth in the deed. Sometimes one has to use land transfers to locate relatives and prove which one of two people with the same name may be your line. Thanks to Bea Bryant for the delicious refreshments served at the end of the session.

During the meeting the group voted to send $100.00 to the SC Room to buy books in memory of those members who have died during the year. Known deceased members include Curtis Moore and Vance Drawdy. Ed Burns, no longer a member, but a faithful member for many years, died within this month. The Chapter extends its sympathy to these families of members who have lost loved ones during the year. If members know of members who have died, please notify the Chapter.

SUMMER GENEALOGICAL WORKSHOP--Details with reservation form was included in the May newsletter. To be held on June 14 at the LDS Church on Ft. Jackson Blvd., the deadline for reservations is June 9. At $10.00 (which includes lunch) is a bargain. If you cannot locate the Msy newsletter and wish to attend, call 803/754-1137 or 803/771-9007.

SOUTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL WORKSHOP--This president and newsletter editor said in the May newsletter that details would be available in this June newsletter. From the Columbia Chapter 2nd quarter publication which has just been received: "Twenty-sixth Annual Workshop will be held July 12, 1997 at the Midlands Tech Airport Campus. Program and registration information will be published in The Carolina Herald and Newsletter."

THE GREENVILLE JOURNAL, Winter and Spring 1997, Nos. 1 & 2, was mailed 5/30/97 and members should be receiving it shortly. Please send articles, queries, family sheets, and any unpublished genealogical data to the Chapter.
