SEPTEMBER MEETING

Thursday, 2 September 1999

7:00 p.m.

Thomas F. Parker Auditorium, Greenville County Library

BOB DICEY and BERT MILLER

"Military History, Uniforms and Memorabilia, Civil War to World War II"

Bob Dickey has been collecting and preserving military relics since he was 5 years old. He is also interested in local military history, especially concerning Greenville Army Air Base and Donaldson Air Force Base. Bert Miller has also been collecting memorabilia since he was a young boy. He is an avid Civil War reenactor, curator of Greenville's Confederate Museum, and an authority on the Civil War and its effects on the Upstate. They will have displays of uniforms, weapons, and other material from their collections.

MINUTES, MEETING OF JUNE 3, 1999: The meeting was called to order by President Evelyn Williams. 27 were present. Since the scheduled speakers were not present, the business meeting proceeded. Evelyn Williams reported that $330.30 has been received for back issues of the Journal. Butch Morton reported that membership stood at 151 plus 8 new members, for a total of 159. Checking account balance was $3751.14 and the CD balance was $5775.46. The census book reprint was sent to the Budget Committee for approval. A membership brochure was approved by this committee. Preparation of a form for indexing the records in the Funeral Home books is being made. A decision on a Web Site was postponed. Memorials will be given to the library for purchase of books in memory of deceased members Franklin A. Spearman, Joseph K. Perry, and Elva Stapp Jones. A discussion on programs, improvements and ideas for Chapter meetings resulted in very interesting ideas. {Note: One of these ideas will be implemented in Oct. when Penelope Cansler speaks on reading Early American Handwriting}.

QUERY: John Peter FRENCH married Anna STONE, dau of Jonathan STONE. He died 1832 in Greenville, SC.
