SANDI GINAC

Scrapbooking: Preserving Your Precious Memories

Sandy Ginac, along with her husband Frank, owns The Scrapbook Attic located at 1296 Woodruff Road in the Merovan Shopping Center. "I've kept scrapbooks since I was a child" she says, "but after a scrapbook class at church I went home, pulled out my albums and cried because so many of my photos had yellowed." Scrapbooking is fun, relaxing, and addictive. It has a way of pulling families closer and preserving what is most precious – your memories.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR: the 19th annual SCGS Summer Workshop will be held on Fri. and Sat. July 7 and 8 at the South Carolina Archives and History Center in Columbia. Highlights include Civil War research, research in the SE branch of the National Archives, Lutheran Records, SC Court records, NC land records, Huguenot research, and cemetery preservation. Registration details available soon.

Welcome to all new members including Gloria M. Pruett, Helen Hope Beacham, Rose & Don Kubler, Billie Harris, and Beverly Sorrells.

Queries will be printed as space permits. Send us yours!

Would anyone volunteer their time to index records for publication by the Chapter? Call 242-5000 ext. 269.

MARCH MEETING: The March 3rd meeting was called to order by Evelyn Williams. After announcing the death of Bee Bryant she turned the meeting over to Gene Welborn who introduced the speaker, Hazel Timlin Townsend. Her topic was "Telling Your Family Stories with Photographs." She illustrated how we have the responsibility of passing on the stories of our grandparents to the younger generations. During the business meeting it was announced that 48 cemetery books have been sold. Future plans include publishing Greenville Cemetery Survey Vol. VI; and a book by Anne McCuen. Possibilities for future consideration are Greenville News Obituaries; Early Greenville County Settlers and their Lineages; Land Grants; Lineage Charts; and Greenville County Cemetery Survey Vol. VII. Future projects include seeking new memberships and retaining current members. The meeting adjourned for delicious refreshments by Pat and Bob Frieler.

Mike Becknell, SCGS President, has announced a change of location for the special election meeting called for 1:00 pm, Saturday, April 15, 2000. The election of officers for the year 2000 will be held at the Richland County Library, located at 1431 Assembly Street, Columbia. Ask for the meeting room location at library's main desk. The Chapter membership is reminded that additional nominees for for the slate of officers may be submitted in accordance with the provisions of the SCGS By-Laws, ARTICLE VII, Section 4, namely, the nomination should be submitted in writing, be endorsed by five members in good standing, contain the consent of the nominee to serve if elected, and be filed with the Recording Secretary at least ten (10) days prior to the election. In addition, Carroll Smith (tigerd3@home.com), our State Representative to the SCGS, indicates that the nomination process for SCGS officers for 2001 will also begin at the April 15, 2000 meeting in Columbia. Candidates for the following officers will be considered for two year terms: First Vice-President, Treasurer, and Archivist-Historian. The Nominating Committee will approve a slate of officers at the SCGS quarterly meeting in July for presentation to the membership and then elected at the Annual Fall meeting in October 2000. Please contact Carroll if you are interested before Sat. April 15, 2000.

South Carolina Genealogical Society pins are available from the Greenville Chapter for $4.00, postage included. They can be purchased at the meeting or by mail at the address below.
