"USING BAPTIST RECORDS FOR GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH"

Glen Clayton has been at Furman University since 1972. For most of those years, he has been Special Collections Librarian and Archivist. The Baptist Historical Collection is a significant part of Special Collections. It is the archives for the SC Baptist Convention. Glenn is a graduate of Wake Forest University, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary with a degree in Church History, and University of South Carolina (Master of Librarianship). He will talk about how to use Baptist records for your research and will cover the resources that they have at Furman in Special Collections that are of value for genealogy.

MINUTES OF March 1, 2001 meeting: The meeting was called to order by President Evelyn Williams. There were 35 members and guests present. Gene Welborn introduced the speaker, Scott Johnson, who spoke on The Society of the Cincinnati. It was an interesting and educational program. Today's members are descendants of an officer of the Continental Army. In the business meeting it was announced that the Mackey Mortuary book is available [see p. 3 of this newsletter]. The State Representative reminded members to put their name, address, e-mail, and phone on the lineage charts they submit. The condition of submission will be the condition printed. [Last call for these!] The meeting was adjourned for fellowship and refreshments furnished by Bob and Pat Frieler and Doris Bramlett. Dorothy S. Hawkins, Recording Secretary
