February Meeting

5th February 2004 at 7 p.m.
Auditorium, Hughes Library (Main Library)
25 Heritage Green Place, Greenville

John Woodfin Grady III History of Christ Church and Cemetery

John Woodfin "Jack" Grady III will be our speaker at the February 5th meeting. He will speak on the History of Christ Church and Cemetery. Mr. Grady attended the Haynesworth School, the Greenville City Schools, Furman University, Greenville Technical College and Clemson University. He has served as an officer or board member of several local corporations. He has been a member of Christ Church since 1941 and a communicant since 1952. He served as a member of the Christ Church Episcopal Board, as secretary of the board, and as a member of various school committees. He is presently Verger of the Church. He is a former director of the Greenville County Historical Society and a charter member of the Greenville County Historical Preservation Foundation. Mr. Grady is a charter member and past adjutant of the 16th Regiment of the Sons of Confederate Veterans; a member of the Confederate Colonel's Club; a member of the Greenville Historical Society, a member of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew, and a past director of the Greenville Chapter of the SCGS.

GeLee "Jo" Corley Hendrix, a member of our society since 1973, died Wednesday, Jan. 7, 2004. Born in Marthaville, La., she was the daughter of the late George Leemon and Freddie Corley. GeLee C. Hendrix, CG, FASG, was a graduate of Auburn University in Alabama. She earned her bachelor's at the School of Pharmacy in 1950, and was licensed in the state of SC that same year, becoming one of the first pioneers for women in the pharmaceutical profession. She was a nationally known genealogist, for which she was certified in 1983. She won several awards for her outstanding research abilities. She gave over 46 lectures, published over 24 articles, over 8 books and many maps. She was a fellow of the American Society of the US Genealogists, which is an honorary society limited to 50 members.
