Minutes of Chapter Meeting April 8th, 2004

The meeting of the Greenville Chapter of the SC Genealogical Society was called to order at 7:07pm. President Charles Latamer welcomed members and introduced visitors and new members and then turned the meeting over to Carol Leake who introduced the speaker Cliff Johns. The subject of his presentation was on how to use the internet for genealogical research. He listed the 3 best free sites and the best commercial site.

Following the program a brief business session was held. The March Chapter minutes were approved as presented in the April Newsletter. The Treasurer's report was given by John Ice who said 145 members have renewed out of the 163 members in 2003. The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm for fellowship and refreshments.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy S. Hawkins
Recording Secretary.

Saddam Hussein Genealogy Revised

The Iraqi Genealogy Authority has deleted the name of Saddam Hussein from the list of noble offspring whose lineage stretches back to the Prophet Muhammad. It seems that Saddam had forced a number of genealogists to create a family tree for him to claim that he had a noble pedigree. The descent from Muhammad was published, even though proof seemed to be lacking. With Saddam now safely removed as a threat, the genealogists are now rejecting the genealogies published when the dictator was in power.
